Flash Games is the term use for games that are played under a Browser although it can be played in some application or software this is commonly use in browsers which needed to install a flash player or shockwave flash before Games can be played and of course an Internet connection.